

Director of Children's Ministries
Christ Church Greenwich, Connecticut

Christ Church Greenwich, a prominent corporate-sized parish in the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut, seeks a dynamic individual(s) to serve as full-time Director of Children's Ministries.

Candidates should have excellent relational ministry skills and a demonstrated passion to create a welcoming and inclusive environment for children from birth through the Fifth Grade. Our objective is to attract persons with a working knowledge of experiential learning practices for children, and supervisory experience with paid and volunteer staff, and a collaborative spirit and work ethic for successful interaction on a large ministry team.

A working knowledge of popular curricula being used in the Episcopal Church, and familiarity with Godly Play/Children in Worship, Rotation Workshop, Bibliodrama and Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is highly preferred. Life experience, education and theological training will be considered along with requested application materials listed below. Finalists will be invited to visit with the search committee, the Priest in Charge, and present an interactive children's chapel with both parents and children. Salary will be commensurate with the gifts, talents, and experience for this ministry. Applicants should submit a resume, a narrative of not more than 500-words highlighting a perceived calling to educational ministry, and a written example of what a successful program might look like.
