

Parish of St. John the Evangelist, Hingham, MA

Coordinator of Youth Ministries (part-time)

St. John the Evangelist Episcopal Church is accepting applications for a paid youth ministry position on their staff. Working 5-10 hours per week, the Coordinator of Youth Ministries will assess and support the current bi-monthly youth group program for 7th-12th graders. Working with a network of dedicated adult parishioners, the youth minister will plan and coordinate special events such as retreats and outreach opportunities. Additional responsibilities may include administrative support for a growing Sunday morning church school program, as well as leading a monthly Sunday morning Children's Chapel. Candidates may be lay or ordained, but must possess a deep commitment to the religious education of children and youth. Candidates must also have strong organizational, interpersonal, and communication skills and be capable of inspiring and equipping lay persons to support and serve in these ministries.

To apply, please send a resume, cover letter, and other pertinent information to:
